as welj as inculcate "new behavioural norms tor the police.

(ix) Booklets and. pamphlets in local languages should be prepared giving details of services/schemes available procedures to be follow ed etc.

(x) Each Stat$_e$ should earmark one training institution for upgrading and developing it into a nodal . institution.

(xi) The procedure for sanction of pensions shall be rationalised so as to ensure the issue of pension payment order and gratuity ordej to each empolyees on the date of superannuation.

(xii) Reasonable tenure in a post is essential for an officer to show results as well as for fixing accountability for performance. State Governments shall review their placement policy in this regard.

(b) the Jouterence primarily serves as a forum for exchange of views. The points indicated above reflect the consensus arrived at in the Conference.

Central guidelines in State for clean administration

2625. SHRI ALAPI AEUNA clios V. ARUNACHALAM.

SHRI K. VASUDEVA PANIC-KER-:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) what are the guidelines issued by the Centre to the States to cleanse administration and make them more responsible' to people;

(b) whether States have followed these guidelines; and

(c) ifso, to what extent t&ey have been implemented?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND. THi: MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) to

(c) The Government have issued guidelines to the State Governments to eliminate corruption in Administration. These guidelines stipulate among other 'things, the need for creating suitable vigilance machinery appointment of Chief Vigilance Officers in sensitive and corruption prone departments and formulation of action plan for anti-corruption efforts. The Government is in continuous correspondence with the State Governments regarding the implementation of ithe guidelines;

QuideUnes have also been circulated to State Governments for implementation of point No. 20 of the Swenty Point Programme viz., "Responsive Adminstration". These guidelines stipulate that the States may: —

(i) progressively, build in all ingredients of Point No. 20 in the schemes administered under, the Twenty Point Programme—1986;

(ii) include major tasks to be undertaken during the year in regard to simplification of procedures- delegation of authority; enforcement of accountability; and attend-ing promptly and sympathetically to public grievances in their annual Action Plan; and

(ill) review the Progress made on a quarterly basis.

Bank dacoities in Punjab

2626. SHRI F., M. KHAN: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state;

(a) the number of dacoities committed °n nationalised banks in various districts of the Punjab during the last four months;

(b) the imount involved in each dacoity;

(c) the number of persons apprehended in connection with these crimes; and

(d) the details of measure taken to strengthen security measures in Pun jab?